Sam Roi Yot Insider - Complete Video Scripts

18 Videos for Video-First Website Strategy

HOMEPAGE VIDEOS (2 videos)

VIDEO 1: Hero Video (30-45 seconds)

Purpose: Autoplay, muted, looping background for homepage hero section Visual Style: Cinematic, aspirational, peaceful Tone: Inspiring, welcoming, luxurious

Script:

[OPEN: Drone shot of Sam Roi Yot coastline at sunrise] [Soft, peaceful music begins]

VOICEOVER (Optional, or just music): "Where nature meets luxury living…"

[Cut to: Pristine beach with turquoise water] [Cut to: Limestone mountains and caves] [Cut to: Sunset over the Gulf of Thailand] [Cut to: Expat lifestyle - coffee at beachfront cafe] [Cut to: Hiking in national park] [Cut to: Local market scene] [Cut to: Luxury villa with ocean view] [Cut to: Sunset on beach with couple]

VOICEOVER: "Sam Roi Yot. Thailand's hidden coastal secret."

[Music swells, fade to black]

Filming Locations:

- Phraya Nakhon Beach (sunrise)

- Dolphin Bay (turquoise water)
- Mountain viewpoints (limestone formations)
- Sunset locations (Ao Manao or Sam Phraya Beach)
- Local cafes and restaurants
- National park trails
- Local markets
- Property locations
- Beach sunset scenes

Technical Notes:

- Shoot in 4K
- Use drone footage for opening and closing
- Smooth transitions between scenes
- Music should be royalty-free (YouTube Audio Library)
- No text overlay (let visuals speak)
- 30-45 seconds total

VIDEO 2: “Why Sam Roi Yot?” - 4-Video Grid (60-90 seconds each)

VIDEO 2.1: Untouched Natural Beauty

Duration: 60-90 seconds Tone: Awe-inspiring, peaceful, authentic

Script: [OPEN: Drone shot of pristine beach at sunrise]

VOICEOVER: “Sam Roi Yot isn’t Phuket. It’s not Hua Hin. It’s something rarer—a place where nature still rules.”

[Cut to: Phraya Nakhon Cave with pavilion] “Limestone cliffs rise from turquoise waters, untouched and timeless.”

[Cut to: Hiking through national park] “Trails wind through protected forests where 300+ bird species still call home.”

[Cut to: Empty beaches] “You’ll find beaches where you can walk for hours without seeing another soul.”

[Cut to: Sunset over mountains] “This is what Thailand looked like 30 years ago. And it still looks like this.”

[Cut to: Aerial view of coastline] “That’s the Sam Roi Yot difference.”

Filming Locations:

- Phraya Nakhon Cave and pavilion
- Limestone cliff formations
- National park trails
- Empty beaches (Ao Noi, Sam Phraya Beach)
- Mountain viewpoints
- Aerial/drone shots of coastline
- Wildlife (birds, if possible)

Key Talking Points:

- Protected national park status
- 300+ bird species
- Untouched beaches
- Limestone formations
- Low development
- Natural preservation

VIDEO 2.2: Strategic Location

Duration: 60-90 seconds Tone: Practical, confident, opportunity-focused

Script: [OPEN: Map animation showing Sam Roi Yot location]

VOICEOVER: “Sam Roi Yot isn’t remote. It’s strategically positioned.”

[Cut to: Highway footage] “Just 3 hours from Bangkok by car. Close enough for business, far enough for peace.”

[Cut to: Hua Hin town] “Hua Hin—with restaurants, shopping, and services—is just 30 minutes away.”

[Cut to: Ferry/boat footage] “Island hopping and coastal exploration is minutes away.”

[Cut to: Airport footage] “Hua Hin Airport offers regional connections. Bangkok’s Suvarnabhumi is 3 hours.”

[Cut to: Local infrastructure] “Modern amenities, reliable internet, good hospitals—all within reach.”

[Cut to: Expat community] “You’re not isolated. You’re positioned. That’s the strategic advantage.”

Filming Locations:

- Highway driving footage
- Hua Hin town scenes
- Ferry/boat scenes
- Airport exterior
- Internet/infrastructure examples
- Hospital/medical facilities
- Shopping areas

Key Talking Points:

- 3 hours from Bangkok
- 30 minutes from Hua Hin
- Island access
- Airport connectivity
- Modern infrastructure
- Expat support network

VIDEO 2.3: Growing Expat Community

Duration: 60-90 seconds Tone: Warm, inclusive, community-focused

Script: [OPEN: Community gathering footage]

VOICEOVER: "Sam Roi Yot has something special—a real community of people who chose to be here."

[Cut to: Cafe scenes with expats] "From digital nomads to retirees, from families to solo adventurers—they all found something here."

[Cut to: Community events] "There are regular meetups, beach cleanups, group activities. You're not alone."

[Cut to: Local interactions] "The Thai community welcomes those who respect the culture. Integration happens naturally."

[Cut to: Diverse people in various settings] "You'll find people from 30+ countries, all choosing this place for the same reasons."

[Cut to: Sunset gathering] "This is more than a location. It's a community of like-minded people building something real."

Filming Locations:

- Cafes and restaurants with expats
- Community events (#samroiyotrun, beach cleanup)
- Group activities
- Local market interactions
- Sunset gatherings
- Diverse group scenes
- Thai-expat interactions

Key Talking Points:

- 3.3K+ Facebook group members

- Diverse international community
- Regular community events
- Thai-expat integration
- Support networks
- Shared values

VIDEO 2.4: Smart Investment

Duration: 60-90 seconds Tone: Professional, confident, forward-looking

Script: [OPEN: Property footage]

VOICEOVER: "Sam Roi Yot isn't just a lifestyle choice. It's a smart investment."

[Cut to: Property appreciation graphics] "Property values have appreciated 15-25% over the past 5 years as the area develops."

[Cut to: Construction and development] "Infrastructure improvements—roads, utilities, services—are increasing land values."

[Cut to: Rental income examples] "Rental income from short-term and long-term rentals provides steady returns."

[Cut to: Expat community growth] "As the expat community grows, demand for properties increases."

[Cut to: Luxury properties] "You're buying in an area positioned for growth, not speculation."

[Cut to: Sunset over property] "Smart investors see Sam Roi Yot before it becomes the next Hua Hin."

Filming Locations:

- Various properties (villas, condos, land)
- Construction/development scenes
- Property appreciation examples
- Rental properties

- Luxury property features
- Sunset property views

Key Talking Points:

- 15-25% property appreciation
- Infrastructure development
- Rental income potential
- Growing demand
- Early-mover advantage
- Long-term value

BUYING GUIDE PAGE VIDEOS (5 videos)

VIDEO 3: Buying Guide Hero Video (45-60 seconds)

Purpose: Hero section for /buying-guide page Tone: Professional, reassuring, expert

Script: [OPEN: Property footage]

VOICEOVER: "Buying property in Thailand. It's not as complicated as you think."

[Cut to: Legal documents] "With the right guidance, the right lawyer, and the right partner—it's straightforward."

[Cut to: Signing documents] "Thousands of foreigners have successfully purchased property in Thailand."

[Cut to: Happy property owners] "And thousands more are doing it every year."

[Cut to: Sam Roi Yot properties] "This guide walks you through everything you need to know."

[Cut to: Professional meeting] "From legal structures to financing to closing—we've got you covered."

[Music swells]

VOICEOVER: “Your Sam Roi Yot property is waiting. Let’s make it happen.”

Filming Locations:

- Property exteriors
- Legal/office settings
- Document signing
- Happy property owners
- Professional consultations
- Property interiors

Technical Notes:

- Professional, trustworthy tone
- Clear audio (voiceover should be crisp)
- Subtitles recommended
- 45-60 seconds total

VIDEO 4-7: Buying Guide FAQ Videos (3-5 minutes each)

VIDEO 4: Can Foreigners Own Property in Thailand?

Duration: 3-5 minutes Tone: Informative, reassuring, expert

Script:

[OPEN: Foreigners at property viewing]

VOICEOVER: “Question 1: Can Foreigners Own Property in Thailand?”

ANSWER: “The short answer: Yes, but with limitations. Let me explain.”

[Cut to: Legal documents]

“Thailand allows foreigners to own land in limited ways, but there’s a straightforward solution.”

LAND OWNERSHIP: “Foreigners CANNOT own land directly. This is the Thai law.”

[Cut to: Lawyer explaining]

“BUT—you can own a house or building on the land through a long-term lease.”

LEASEHOLD STRUCTURE: “A 30-year lease is standard. It’s renewable, and it’s legally binding.”

[Cut to: Property examples]

“Many successful expats own properties this way. It’s secure, it’s legal, and it works.”

CONDO OWNERSHIP: “Condominiums are different. Foreigners CAN own condos directly.”

[Cut to: Condo buildings]

“Up to 49% of a condo building can be foreign-owned. This is fully legal.”

COMPANY OWNERSHIP: “Another option: Own the property through a Thai company.”

[Cut to: Office/business setting]

“This requires proper setup and accounting, but it’s a legitimate structure.”

WHICH IS RIGHT FOR YOU? “The right structure depends on your situation, your timeline, and your goals.”

[Cut to: Lawyer consultation]

“That’s why you need a good lawyer. They’ll advise you on the best structure.”

BOTTOM LINE: “Thousands of foreigners own property in Thailand legally and securely.”

[Cut to: Happy property owners]

“You can too. You just need the right guidance.”

Key Talking Points:

- Foreigners cannot own land directly
- 30-year leasehold is standard and renewable
- Condos can be fully owned by foreigners (49% foreign ownership limit per building)
- Company ownership is an option
- Lawyer guidance is essential
- Legal and secure structures exist

Filming Locations:

- Property viewings
- Legal offices
- Lawyer consultations
- Condo buildings
- Land/leasehold properties
- Office/business settings

VIDEO 5: Leasehold vs Freehold Explained

Duration: 3-5 minutes Tone: Educational, comparative, practical

Script:

[OPEN: Property comparison]

VOICEOVER: "Question 2: Leasehold vs Freehold. What's the difference? And which is right for you?"

LEASEHOLD BASICS: [Cut to: Lease document]

"Leasehold means you own the right to use the property for a fixed period—typically 30 years."

"After 30 years, the lease ends. You can renew it, but you don't own the land."

LEASEHOLD ADVANTAGES: [Cut to: Property examples]

“Leasehold is usually cheaper than freehold.”

“It’s the most common structure for foreigners in Thailand.”

“30-year leases are renewable—many have been renewed multiple times.”

“It’s fully legal and secure with proper documentation.”

LEASEHOLD DISADVANTAGES: “The lease has an expiration date. You need to plan for renewal.”

“Resale can be more complex than freehold.”

“Banks may be more cautious with leasehold financing.”

FREEHOLD BASICS: [Cut to: Freehold property]

“Freehold means you own the property outright, including the land, in perpetuity.”

“It’s yours. Forever. No expiration date.”

FREEHOLD ADVANTAGES: “Complete ownership and control.”

“Easier to finance and refinance.”

“Simpler to sell or transfer.”

“Peace of mind—no renewal concerns.”

FREEHOLD DISADVANTAGES: “Freehold is significantly more expensive than leasehold.”

“Foreigners have limited freehold options in Thailand.”

“More complex legal structures may be required.”

WHICH IS RIGHT FOR YOU? [Cut to: Lawyer consultation]

“If you’re buying for lifestyle and investment, leasehold works well.”

“If you want complete ownership and have the budget, freehold is ideal.”

“Your lawyer will help you understand which makes sense for your situation.”

BOTTOM LINE: “Both are legitimate, legal, and secure. The choice depends on your goals and budget.”

Key Talking Points:

- Leasehold = 30-year usage rights (renewable)
- Freehold = permanent ownership
- Leasehold is cheaper and more common for foreigners
- Freehold offers complete ownership
- Both are legal and secure
- Lawyer guidance essential

Filming Locations:

- Lease documents
- Freehold properties
- Legal offices
- Property comparisons
- Lawyer consultations

VIDEO 6: True Costs of Buying Thailand Property

Duration: 3-5 minutes Tone: Transparent, practical, helpful

Script:

[OPEN: Property with price tag]

VOICEOVER: “Question 3: What are the TRUE costs of buying property in Thailand?”

“People often focus on the property price and miss the other costs. Let’s break it down.”

PURCHASE PRICE: [Cut to: Property footage]

“This is what you see advertised. But it’s not the total cost.”

TRANSFER FEES: [Cut to: Documents and calculations]

“When you buy, there’s a transfer fee—2% of the property value.”

“Example: €100,000 property = €2,000 transfer fee.”

STAMP DUTY: “Stamp duty is 0.5% of the property value.”

“Same €100,000 example = €500 stamp duty.”

LEGAL FEES: [Cut to: Lawyer office]

“You need a good lawyer. Budget €1,500-€3,000 for legal work.”

“This is non-negotiable. A good lawyer saves you money.”

BANK FEES & FINANCING: “If you’re financing, banks charge origination fees (2-3% of loan amount).”

“Interest rates typically range from 3-5% annually.”

PROPERTY TAX: [Cut to: Property tax documents]

“Annual property tax is minimal in Thailand—typically 0.02-0.1% of property value.”

“Much lower than most Western countries.”

MAINTENANCE & UTILITIES: “Budget for maintenance, utilities, and property management.”

“€50-€200 per month depending on property size.”

TOTAL EXAMPLE: [Cut to: Calculation breakdown]

“€100,000 property purchase:” “- Transfer fee: €2,000” “- Stamp duty: €500” “- Legal fees: €2,000” “- Total closing costs: €4,500”

“That’s 4.5% of the purchase price. Typical for Thailand.”

COMPARISON: “In many Western countries, closing costs are 8-12%.”

“Thailand is actually quite reasonable.”

ONGOING COSTS: “Annual property tax: €100-€200” “Maintenance & utilities: €600-€2,400 per year” “Total annual: €700-€2,600”

“Much lower than Western property ownership.”

BOTTOM LINE: [Cut to: Happy property owner]

“Yes, there are costs beyond the purchase price. But they’re transparent and reasonable.”

“Budget 5-7% above the purchase price for closing costs.”

“And budget €50-€200/month for ongoing expenses.”

“That’s the true cost of owning property in Thailand.”

Key Talking Points:

- Transfer fee: 2%
- Stamp duty: 0.5%
- Legal fees: €1,500-€3,000
- Total closing costs: 4.5-5.5% (lower than Western countries)
- Annual property tax: 0.02-0.1%
- Maintenance/utilities: €50-€200/month
- Financing available at 3-5% interest

Filming Locations:

- Property with price display
- Legal documents
- Lawyer offices
- Bank/financing offices
- Property tax documents
- Maintenance examples

VIDEO 7: Step-by-Step Buying Process

Duration: 3-5 minutes Tone: Clear, reassuring, professional

Script:

[OPEN: Timeline graphic]

VOICEOVER: “Question 4: What’s the step-by-step process for buying property in Thailand?”

“Here’s the timeline. From first viewing to keys in hand.”

STEP 1: PROPERTY SEARCH & VIEWING (1-4 weeks) [Cut to: Property viewings]

“You find a property you like. You view it. You decide it’s the one.”

“This can take days or weeks depending on your search.”

STEP 2: MAKE AN OFFER (1 day) [Cut to: Negotiation]

“You make an offer. The seller accepts or counters.”

“In Thailand, negotiation is expected. Budget 5-10% below asking price.”

STEP 3: HIRE A LAWYER (1 day) [Cut to: Lawyer office]

“This is critical. Hire a qualified lawyer immediately.”

“Your lawyer will handle all legal documentation and due diligence.”

STEP 4: DUE DILIGENCE (2-4 weeks) [Cut to: Document review]

“Your lawyer verifies:” “- Property title and ownership” “- No liens or claims” “- Proper documentation” “- Legal structure (leasehold vs freehold)”

“This is crucial. Don’t skip this step.”

STEP 5: SIGN PRELIMINARY AGREEMENT (1 day) [Cut to: Document signing]

“You and the seller sign a preliminary agreement.”

“This outlines terms, price, timeline, and conditions.”

“Typically, you pay a deposit (10-20% of purchase price) at this point.”

STEP 6: FINANCING (2-4 weeks) [Cut to: Bank office]

“If you need financing, apply to banks now.”

“Thai banks typically finance 50-70% of property value.”

“Interest rates: 3-5% annually.”

“Approval takes 2-4 weeks.”

STEP 7: FINAL INSPECTIONS & APPROVALS (1-2 weeks) [Cut to: Property inspection]

“Final walkthrough and inspections.”

“Verify the property condition matches the agreement.”

“Ensure all utilities and systems work.”

STEP 8: TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP (1 day) [Cut to: Land office]

“You and the seller go to the Land Office together.”

“Documents are signed and transferred.”

“Ownership officially changes hands.”

“This typically happens at the Land Office in Prachuap Khiri Khan.”

STEP 9: REGISTRATION (1 day) [Cut to: Registration process]

“Your name is registered as the new owner.”

“You receive the Title Deed (Chanote).”

“This is your proof of ownership.”

TOTAL TIMELINE: [Cut to: Calendar]

“From offer to keys: 6-12 weeks typically.”

“Faster if you pay cash. Slower if financing is needed.”

IMPORTANT NOTES: [Cut to: Lawyer consultation]

“Your lawyer handles most of this. You attend key meetings.”

“Communication is key. Stay in touch with your lawyer.”

“Don’t rush the process. Due diligence takes time.”

BOTTOM LINE: “The process is straightforward when you have the right team.”

“Lawyer, real estate agent, and bank—that’s your team.”

“Follow the steps, be patient, and you’ll be a property owner in Sam Roi Yot.”

Key Talking Points:

- Total timeline: 6-12 weeks
- Step 1: Property search (1-4 weeks)
- Step 2: Make offer (1 day)
- Step 3: Hire lawyer (1 day)
- Step 4: Due diligence (2-4 weeks)
- Step 5: Preliminary agreement (1 day)
- Step 6: Financing (2-4 weeks)
- Step 7: Final inspections (1-2 weeks)
- Step 8: Transfer of ownership (1 day)
- Step 9: Registration (1 day)
- Lawyer is critical throughout

Filming Locations:

- Property viewings
- Lawyer offices
- Negotiation scenes
- Document signing
- Bank offices
- Land office
- Registration process
- Property handover

AREA GUIDE PAGE VIDEOS (6 videos)

VIDEO 8: Area Guide Hero Video (45-60 seconds)

Purpose: Hero section for /area-guide page Tone: Inviting, informative, inspiring

Script: [OPEN: Aerial shot of Sam Roi Yot]

VOICEOVER: "Sam Roi Yot. Where do you even start?"

[Cut to: Beaches, mountains, caves, activities]

"From hidden beaches to limestone caves, from local culture to outdoor adventures—there's something for everyone."

[Cut to: Diverse activities]

"Let's explore what makes this place so special."

[Music swells]

VOICEOVER: "Your Sam Roi Yot Area Guide starts here."

Filming Locations:

- Aerial/drone shots
- Beach scenes
- Mountain views
- Cave interiors
- Activity footage
- Diverse scenes

VIDEO 9: Best Beaches in Sam Roi Yot (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Inspiring, practical, visual

Script:

[OPEN: Aerial beach footage]

VOICEOVER: “Sam Roi Yot has some of Thailand’s most beautiful beaches. Let’s explore them.”

DOLPHIN BAY: [Cut to: Dolphin Bay footage]

“Dolphin Bay is the most famous. Turquoise water, white sand, dramatic limestone backdrop.”

“Best for: Swimming, photography, sunset watching.”

“When to go: Year-round, but best November-May (dry season).”

“Tip: Go early morning to avoid crowds.”

PHRAYA NAKHON BEACH: [Cut to: Phraya Nakhon Beach]

“Phraya Nakhon Beach is iconic. The cave pavilion is one of Thailand’s most photographed spots.”

“Best for: Hiking, photography, exploring caves.”

“When to go: October-May (dry season). Visit the cave 10:30-11:30 AM for best light.”

AO NOI BEACH: [Cut to: Ao Noi Beach]

“Ao Noi is quieter. Fewer tourists, more authentic local experience.”

“Best for: Relaxation, swimming, local food.”

“When to go: Year-round.”

“Tip: Great seafood restaurants nearby.”

AO MANAO BEACH: [Cut to: Ao Manao Beach]

“Ao Manao is perfect for water sports—windsurfing and kite surfing.”

“Best for: Water sports, adventure, active travelers.”

“When to go: November-May (consistent winds).”

SAM PHRAYA BEACH: [Cut to: Sam Phraya Beach]

"Sam Phraya Beach is peaceful and undeveloped. Perfect for those seeking solitude."

"Best for: Relaxation, meditation, photography."

"When to go: Year-round."

LAEM SALA BEACH: [Cut to: Laem Sala Beach]

"Laem Sala is in the national park. Accessible by boat or hiking."

"Best for: Adventure, hiking, nature lovers."

"When to go: October-May."

INSIDER TIP: [Cut to: Sunset footage]

"Each beach has different vibes. Explore multiple beaches to find your favorite."

"Sunrise at Dolphin Bay. Sunset at Ao Manao. Quiet mornings at Sam Phraya."

"That's the Sam Roi Yot beach experience."

Key Talking Points:

- Dolphin Bay (famous, turquoise water)
- Phraya Nakhon Beach (cave pavilion, photography)
- Ao Noi (quiet, local)
- Ao Manao (water sports)
- Sam Phraya (peaceful, undeveloped)
- Laem Sala (adventure, national park)
- Best season: November-May
- Each beach has different character

Filming Locations:

- All 6 beaches (multiple angles)
- Sunrise/sunset footage

- Water sports scenes
- Cave pavilion
- Hiking scenes
- Local restaurants

VIDEO 10: Cost of Living Comparison (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Practical, transparent, informative

Script:

[OPEN: Market and lifestyle footage]

VOICEOVER: "How much does it cost to live in Sam Roi Yot?"

"Let's break down the real numbers."

HOUSING COSTS: [Cut to: Rental properties]

"Rental housing varies by property type:"

"Thai house: 5,000-10,000 baht/month (€130-€260)" "Condo: 10,000-20,000 baht/month (€260-€520)" "Villa: 20,000-50,000+ baht/month (€520-€1,300+)"

"These are typical monthly rental prices."

FOOD COSTS: [Cut to: Markets and restaurants]

"Eating local is incredibly cheap:"

"Street food meal: 30-50 baht (€0.80-€1.30)" "Local restaurant meal: 80-150 baht (€2-€4)" "Western restaurant meal: 300-600 baht (€8-€16)" "Groceries (local): 50-100 baht/day (€1.30-€2.60)"

"You can eat well for €3-€5 per day if you eat local."

UTILITIES: [Cut to: Utility bills]

"Monthly utilities (electricity, water, internet):"

“Electricity: 1,000-2,000 baht/month (€26-€52)” “Water: 200-500 baht/month (€5-€13)” “Internet: 800-1,200 baht/month (€21-€31)”

“Total utilities: 2,000-3,700 baht/month (€52-€96)”

TRANSPORTATION: [Cut to: Scooters, taxis, cars]

“Getting around is cheap:”

“Scooter rental: 150-250 baht/day (€4-€6.50)” “Scooter purchase: 40,000-80,000 baht (€1,040-€2,080)” “Taxi/Grab: 50-200 baht per trip (€1.30-€5)” “Car rental: 800-1,500 baht/day (€21-€39)”

HEALTHCARE: [Cut to: Hospital and clinic]

“Healthcare is affordable:”

“Doctor visit: 300-500 baht (€8-€13)” “Dentist: 500-1,500 baht (€13-€39)” “Hospital (private): 2,000-5,000 baht/day (€52-€130)” “Health insurance: 10,000-30,000 baht/year (€260-€780)”

ENTERTAINMENT & ACTIVITIES: [Cut to: Restaurants, tours, activities]

“Fun doesn’t have to be expensive:”

“Kayaking tour: 1,000-1,500 baht (€26-€39)” “Hiking guide: 500-1,000 baht (€13-€26)” “Cooking class: 1,500-2,500 baht (€39-€65)” “Dining out (nice restaurant): 300-800 baht (€8-€21)”

MONTHLY BUDGET EXAMPLES:

Budget Living: “Housing: €130 (Thai house)” “Food: €100 (eating local)” “Utilities: €70” “Transportation: €50” “Entertainment: €100” “Total: €450/month”

Comfortable Living: “Housing: €400 (nice condo)” “Food: €200 (mix of local and Western)” “Utilities: €70” “Transportation: €100” “Entertainment: €200” “Total: €970/month”

Luxury Living: “Housing: €1,000+ (villa)” “Food: €400+ (restaurants)” “Utilities: €100” “Transportation: €200” “Entertainment: €400+” “Total: €2,100+/month”

COMPARISON TO OTHER PLACES:

[Cut to: Comparison graphics]

“Sam Roi Yot vs Phuket:” “Phuket is 30-50% more expensive”

“Sam Roi Yot vs Hua Hin:” “Similar prices, but Sam Roi Yot has better nature”

“Sam Roi Yot vs Bangkok:” “Bangkok is 20-40% more expensive”

“Sam Roi Yot vs Western countries:” “Sam Roi Yot is 60-80% cheaper”

BOTTOM LINE: [Cut to: Happy residents]

“You can live comfortably in Sam Roi Yot for €500-€1,000/month.”

“That includes housing, food, utilities, and entertainment.”

“It’s one of the most affordable places in Thailand.”

“And the quality of life is exceptional.”

Key Talking Points:

- Thai house: €130-€260/month
- Condo: €260-€520/month
- Villa: €520-€1,300+/month
- Food: €3-€5/day (eating local)
- Utilities: €50-€100/month
- Budget living: €450/month
- Comfortable living: €1,000/month
- 60-80% cheaper than Western countries

Filming Locations:

- Local markets
- Restaurants (various price points)
- Utility bill examples
- Transportation scenes
- Healthcare facilities

- Activities and tours

VIDEO 11: Things to Do & Activities (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Exciting, inspiring, adventure-focused

Script:

[OPEN: Action footage of various activities]

VOICEOVER: "What can you actually DO in Sam Roi Yot?"

"More than you might think."

HIKING & TREKKING: [Cut to: Hiking footage]

"Phraya Nakhon Cave hike is iconic. 2-3 hours, moderate difficulty, incredible views."

"Multiple national park trails offer everything from easy walks to challenging hikes."

"Khao Dinsor Viewpoint offers 360-degree views at sunset."

KAYAKING & WATER SPORTS: [Cut to: Kayaking footage]

"Mangrove kayaking through Khao Daeng Canal is peaceful and scenic."

"Windsurfing and kite surfing at Ao Manao for the adventurous."

"Boat tours to Lotus Pond and hidden coves."

BIKING: [Cut to: Mountain biking footage]

"Off-the-beaten-track biking tours through local villages and scenic routes."

"Scooter exploration for independent travelers."

WILDLIFE & NATURE: [Cut to: Wildlife footage]

"Birdwatching—300+ species in the area."

"Wild elephant viewing at Kui Buri National Park (1.5 hours away)."

"Whale watching (seasonal, November-May)."

CULTURAL EXPERIENCES: [Cut to: Cultural scenes]

“Visit traditional broom-making communities.”

“Explore ancient temples and spiritual sites.”

“Saturday beach market for authentic local food.”

“Saturday morning beach exercise (#samroiyotrun).”

RELAXATION: [Cut to: Beach and spa scenes]

“Yoga and meditation overlooking the ocean.”

“Spa and massage treatments (very affordable).”

“Simply sitting on a beach watching the sunset.”

NEARBY DAY TRIPS: [Cut to: Travel footage]

“Kaengkrachan National Park (1.5 hours) for larger wildlife viewing.”

“Hua Hin (30 minutes) for shopping, dining, and nightlife.”

“Island hopping and coastal exploration.”

INSIDER TIP: [Cut to: Montage of activities]

“The best part? You can do all of this without breaking the bank.”

“Most activities cost €10-€40 per person.”

“And you can mix adventure with relaxation based on your mood.”

BOTTOM LINE: “Sam Roi Yot isn’t boring. It’s the opposite.”

“There’s always something to do. You just choose your pace.”

Key Talking Points:

- Phraya Nakhon Cave hike
- Mangrove kayaking
- Windsurfing/kite surfing

- Mountain biking
- Birdwatching (300+ species)
- Whale watching (seasonal)
- Cultural experiences
- Beach relaxation
- Nearby day trips
- Affordable activities (€10-€40)

Filming Locations:

- Hiking trails
- Kayaking scenes
- Biking footage
- Wildlife (birds, elephants)
- Cultural sites
- Beaches
- Markets
- Nearby attractions

VIDEO 12: National Park Guide (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Educational, inspiring, practical

Script:

[OPEN: Aerial view of Khao Sam Roi Yot National Park]

VOICEOVER: “Khao Sam Roi Yot National Park is the heart of Sam Roi Yot.”

“It’s a protected area with caves, beaches, trails, and wildlife.”

“Let’s explore what you need to know.”

PARK OVERVIEW: [Cut to: Park entrance and information]

“The park covers 98 square kilometers of protected land and sea.”

“It’s home to 300+ bird species, monkeys, and marine life.”

“Entrance fee: 200 baht (€5) for foreigners.”

PHRAYA NAKHON CAVE: [Cut to: Cave and pavilion footage]

“The most famous attraction. A cave with a historic pavilion inside.”

“Hike: 2-3 hours, moderate difficulty.”

“Best time: 10:30-11:30 AM for optimal light inside the cave.”

“Photography: Absolutely stunning. This is Instagram gold.”

KAEW CAVE: [Cut to: Kaew Cave footage]

“Another beautiful cave. Less crowded than Phraya Nakhon.”

“Hike: 1.5-2 hours, easy to moderate.”

“Features: Stalactites, stalagmites, underground streams.”

LOTUS POND: [Cut to: Lotus Pond footage]

“Accessible by boat from Ranger Station n.4.”

“Peaceful, scenic, and less touristy.”

“Best time: Early morning when lotus flowers are open.”

“Duration: 2-3 hours by boat.”

BEACHES IN THE PARK: [Cut to: Beach footage]

“Laem Sala Beach—accessible by hiking or boat.”

“Pristine, undeveloped, and beautiful.”

“Great for swimming and snorkeling.”

TRAILS & HIKING: [Cut to: Trail footage]

“Multiple trails of varying difficulty.”

“Easy walks: 1-2 hours.”

“Moderate hikes: 2-4 hours.”

“Challenging trails: 4+ hours.”

“All trails are well-marked and maintained.”

BIRDWATCHING: [Cut to: Bird footage]

“300+ bird species in the park.”

“Best time: Early morning (5-8 AM).”

“Bring binoculars and a bird guide.”

“Hire a local guide for best results.”

PRACTICAL INFORMATION:

[Cut to: Park information]

“Park hours: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM” “Entrance fee: 200 baht (€5)” “Parking: 50 baht (€1.30)” “Guides available: 500-1,000 baht (€13-€26)”

“Best season: October-May (dry season)” “Avoid: September (rainy season)”

WHAT TO BRING: “Water and snacks” “Sunscreen and hat” “Good hiking shoes” “Camera” “Insect repellent”

INSIDER TIPS: [Cut to: Park scenes]

“Go early to avoid crowds.”

“Hire a guide—they know the best spots and wildlife.”

“Combine multiple activities in one day (cave hike + boat tour).”

“Respect the park—it’s a protected area.”

“Take all trash with you.”

BOTTOM LINE: “Khao Sam Roi Yot National Park is the reason people move to Sam Roi Yot.”

“It’s accessible, affordable, and absolutely worth exploring.”

“Plan to spend multiple days exploring different areas.”

Key Talking Points:

- 98 square kilometers of protected land
- 300+ bird species
- Phraya Nakhon Cave (most famous)
- Kaew Cave (less crowded)
- Lotus Pond (peaceful)
- Laem Sala Beach (pristine)
- Multiple hiking trails
- Entrance fee: 200 baht (€5)
- Best season: October-May
- Guides available: €13-€26

Filming Locations:

- Park entrance
- Phraya Nakhon Cave
- Kaew Cave
- Lotus Pond
- Laem Sala Beach
- Various trails
- Wildlife (birds, monkeys)
- Ranger stations

VIDEO 13: Dining & Food Scene (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Appetizing, practical, cultural

Script:

[OPEN: Food and market footage]

VOICEOVER: “Sam Roi Yot has an incredible food scene.”

“From street food to fine dining, from local Thai to international cuisine.”

“Let’s explore.”

STREET FOOD: [Cut to: Street food vendors]

“Pad Thai from a street vendor: 30-50 baht (€0.80-€1.30)”

“Grilled fish: 40-80 baht (€1-€2)”

“Mango sticky rice: 30-50 baht (€0.80-€1.30)”

“Fresh fruit smoothies: 30-50 baht (€0.80-€1.30)”

“Street food is authentic, delicious, and incredibly cheap.”

LOCAL RESTAURANTS: [Cut to: Local restaurant scenes]

“Local Thai restaurants: 80-150 baht per dish (€2-€4)”

“Specialties: Fresh seafood, curry dishes, noodle soups.”

“Atmosphere: Authentic, casual, full of locals.”

“Recommendation: Eat where the locals eat.”

SEAFOOD: [Cut to: Seafood dishes]

“Sam Roi Yot is a coastal town. Seafood is fresh and abundant.”

“Grilled prawns: 150-300 baht (€4-€8)”

“Fish curry: 100-200 baht (€2.60-€5)”

“Crab omelette: 120-200 baht (€3-€5)”

“Seafood soup: 100-150 baht (€2.60-€4)”

“Prices vary by season and availability.”

MARKETS: [Cut to: Market footage]

“Longlae Market—Saturday beach market with fresh food and local specialties.”

“Daily fresh markets with produce, fish, and local goods.”

“Great for buying ingredients if you’re cooking at home.”

“Prices are 50-70% cheaper than restaurants.”

WESTERN FOOD: [Cut to: Western restaurant scenes]

“Western restaurants cater to the expat community.”

“Pizza: 250-400 baht (€6.50-€10)”

“Burgers: 200-350 baht (€5-€9)”

“Pasta: 250-400 baht (€6.50-€10)”

“Prices are higher than Thai food but still reasonable.”

CAFES & COFFEE: [Cut to: Cafe scenes]

“Beachfront cafes are popular for morning coffee and work.”

“Thai coffee: 30-50 baht (€0.80-€1.30)”

“Western coffee: 80-150 baht (€2-€4)”

“Many cafes have good WiFi—great for digital nomads.”

DINING EXPERIENCES: [Cut to: Various dining scenes]

“Sunset dinners on the beach.”

“Cooking classes to learn Thai cuisine.”

“Group dinners with the expat community.”

“Fine dining experiences (if you want them).”

INSIDER TIPS: [Cut to: Food montage]

“Learn basic Thai food names—it helps with ordering.”

“Ask locals for recommendations—they know the best spots.”

“Eat seasonally—fresh seafood varies by season.”

“Don’t be afraid to try new things.”

“The best meals are often the cheapest.”

BOTTOM LINE: “Food in Sam Roi Yot is fresh, delicious, and affordable.”

“You can eat like a king for the price of a coffee in the West.”

“Whether you’re a foodie or just hungry, you’ll eat well here.”

Key Talking Points:

- Street food: €0.80-€1.30 per meal
- Local restaurants: €2-€4 per dish
- Fresh seafood abundant and affordable
- Longlae Market (Saturday)
- Daily fresh markets
- Western food available (€5-€10)
- Cafes with WiFi
- Cooking classes available
- Seasonal specialties
- Expat community dining

Filming Locations:

- Street food vendors
- Local restaurants
- Seafood markets
- Longlae Market (Saturday)
- Fresh markets
- Cafes

- Dining scenes
- Food preparation
- Finished dishes

VIDEO 14: Healthcare & Practical Living (2-4 minutes)

Duration: 2-4 minutes Tone: Reassuring, practical, informative

Script:

[OPEN: Hospital and healthcare facility footage]

VOICEOVER: "Moving to a new country? Healthcare is important."

"Here's what you need to know about healthcare and practical living in Sam Roi Yot."

HEALTHCARE FACILITIES: [Cut to: Hospital and clinic footage]

"Prachuap Khiri Khan has several hospitals and clinics."

"Private hospitals offer high-quality care at affordable prices."

"Doctors often speak English."

"Facilities are modern and clean."

DOCTOR VISITS: [Cut to: Doctor consultation]

"Doctor visit: 300-500 baht (€8-€13)"

"Much cheaper than Western countries."

"No appointment usually needed."

"Doctors are well-trained and experienced."

DENTISTRY: [Cut to: Dental clinic]

"Dental work is very affordable:"

"Cleaning: 500-800 baht (€13-€21)"

“Filling: 500-1,500 baht (€13-€39)”

“Crown: 3,000-8,000 baht (€78-€208)”

“Root canal: 2,000-5,000 baht (€52-€130)”

“Many expats come to Thailand for dental work.”

PHARMACIES: [Cut to: Pharmacy scenes]

“Pharmacies are everywhere.”

“Medications are affordable.”

“Many medications available without prescription.”

“Pharmacists can provide basic medical advice.”

HEALTH INSURANCE: [Cut to: Insurance documents]

“International health insurance: 10,000-30,000 baht/year (€260-€780)”

“Thai health insurance: 5,000-15,000 baht/year (€130-€390)”

“Many expats use international insurance.”

“Some use Thai insurance for basic coverage.”

INTERNET & COMMUNICATION: [Cut to: Internet/WiFi scenes]

“Internet is reliable and affordable:”

“Home internet: 800-1,200 baht/month (€21-€31)”

“Mobile phone: 50-100 baht/month (€1.30-€2.60) for basic plans”

“WiFi is available in cafes, restaurants, and hotels.”

“Good for digital nomads and remote workers.”

BANKING: [Cut to: Bank scenes]

“Banking is straightforward:”

“Opening an account: Requires passport and proof of address”

“ATMs: Widely available, small fee per withdrawal”

“Credit cards: Accepted in most places”

“Money transfer: Easy and affordable”

TRANSPORTATION: [Cut to: Transportation scenes]

“Getting around is easy:”

“Scooter rental: 150-250 baht/day (€4-€6.50)”

“Scooter purchase: 40,000-80,000 baht (€1,040-€2,080)”

“Taxi/Grab: 50-200 baht per trip (€1.30-€5)”

“Buses to Bangkok: 200-300 baht (€5-€8)”

VISA & RESIDENCY: [Cut to: Immigration office]

“Tourist visa: 60 days”

“Retirement visa: 1 year (requires 800,000 baht in Thai bank)”

“Elite visa: Multiple years (expensive but convenient)”

“Visa runs: Easy to nearby countries”

UTILITIES: [Cut to: Utility bills]

“Electricity: 1,000-2,000 baht/month (€26-€52)”

“Water: 200-500 baht/month (€5-€13)”

“Internet: 800-1,200 baht/month (€21-€31)”

“Gas (if applicable): 200-400 baht/month (€5-€10)”

PRACTICAL TIPS: [Cut to: Various scenes]

“Learn basic Thai—it helps with everything.”

“Get a Thai phone number—it’s cheap and useful.”

“Register with your embassy—good for safety.”

“Join the expat community—they can help with practical questions.”

“Keep important documents in a safe place.”

BOTTOM LINE: [Cut to: Happy residents]

“Practical living in Sam Roi Yot is easy and affordable.”

“Healthcare is good and cheap.”

“Internet is reliable.”

“Banking and utilities are straightforward.”

“You’ll adapt quickly.”

Key Talking Points:

- Doctor visit: €8-€13
- Dentistry: €13-€208 (depending on procedure)
- Health insurance: €130-€780/year
- Internet: €21-€31/month
- Mobile phone: €1.30-€2.60/month
- Scooter rental: €4-€6.50/day
- Electricity: €26-€52/month
- Retirement visa available
- English-speaking doctors
- Expat community support

Filming Locations:

- Hospital/clinic exterior
- Doctor consultation
- Dental clinic
- Pharmacy
- Internet/WiFi usage

- Bank scenes
- ATM usage
- Transportation scenes
- Utility bill examples
- Immigration office

SUMMARY

Total Video Count: 18 videos

Homepage: 2 videos (hero + 4-video grid) Buying Guide: 5 videos (hero + 4 FAQs) Area Guide: 6 videos (hero + 6 topics) Property Detail Pages: Optional 7 videos (individual property tours)

Total Duration:

- Short videos (30-90 sec): 6 videos
- Medium videos (2-4 min): 8 videos
- Long-form videos (3-5 min): 4 videos

Production Timeline:

- Allow 2-4 weeks for filming all 18 videos
- Budget 1-2 weeks for editing
- Total: 3-6 weeks from start to finish

Next Steps:

1. Review these scripts
2. Plan filming locations and dates
3. Gather B-roll and testimonials
4. Film videos in batches by location
5. Edit and upload to YouTube

6. Share YouTube IDs with development team for integration